A Year-Round Celebration

In May, we celebrate all things strawberry, and at the Annual Pungo Strawberry Festival, you can eat the fruit of honor in more than 50 different ways, while also indulging in a pie-eating contest, strawberry bake-off, continuous entertainment on three stages, a parade and one of the largest carnivals on the East Coast. Following the festival, be sure to explore Pungo's 16 pick-your-own farms for sustainable, local produce and farm-crafted treats to take home as a sweet souvenir.

During Memorial Day weekend, the beach transforms into a beachfront bash of red, white and blue. Being home to some of the largest military bases in the country calls for a huge weekend-long salute and celebration of our Armed Forces. Hosted by the USO, the Patriotic Festival, a three-day event in June, presents live performances from national touring artists and has become one of the most popular summer festivals on the East Coast.

Standing tall at 34 ft., the majestic bronze statue of King Neptune welcomes locals and visitors alike at the gateway of Neptune Park, located on the boardwalk at 31st Street. The King's reign over Virginia Beach is reason to celebrate the beach life annually during the Neptune Festival, a commemoration made up of more than 40 events across all three of the city's beaches during September and October. Enjoy art from around the nation at the Neptune Art & Craft Show; sip local Virginia wines during tasting events; catch a wave; run an 8K; or see how sculptures come to life in the sand during the 10-day International Sand Sculpting Championships.

SOMETHING IN THE WATER:

Something in the Water (SITW) is a multi-day music festival and cultural experience featuring some of the music industry's biggest acts, held at the Oceanfront each spring. Started by Virginia Beach native, Pharrell Williams, SITW is a celebration of all things music, fashion, and innovation, and is a local gem you have to experience for yourself.

SOMETHING IN THE WATER

Live! on Atlantic

From dazzling fireworks shows and sidewalk chalk masterpieces on the boardwalk, to blow-out concerts and music festivals right by the water, Live! on Atlantic keeps the good times rolling throughout the Oceanfront District all summer long.

With free shows every night along the boardwalk and Atlantic Avenue with their Free Summer Concert Series, and a lineup of festivals and performances throughout the summer that you won't want to miss, Live! On Atlantic makes the Virginia Beach Oceanfront come alive. Formerly known as BeachStreet USA, the series begins Memorial Day weekend, from 17th to 25th Streets, as well as stages on 13th Street and 15th Street at the Virginia Beach Oceanfront.

DIVERSE DISTRICTS

With multiple beautiful beaches and eclectic districts, each with its own distinct personality, Virginia Beach is so much more than your run-of-the-mill beach town. Every corner of our coastal city offers unique ways to live the life, whether on the ocean or on the bay, or somewhere in between.

Sandbridge

Sandbridge is a relaxing and peaceful community where you can truly slow down and unwind on your vacation. Here are some of our favorite ways to live it up while we're here.

VACATION RENTALS:

Sandbridge is the hub of vacation rentals and condos in Virginia Beach. From quaint beach houses to ocean-side retreats, luxury condos and everything in between, Sandbridge offers a variety of stunning beach house rentals for families of all sizes. Local rental companies have everything you need from vacation specials, pet-friendly accommodations, and premium rentals for all budgets and family sizes.

KAYAKING AND STAND-UP PADDLEBOARDING:

The unencumbered beauty of the Back Bay makes it one of our favorite places to explore by water. There is no shortage of great local outfitters offering guided kayak and paddleboard tours of both Back Bay and the Atlantic Ocean. While beginners are welcome on the bay, the ocean tours, launching at Little Island Park, do require experience.

CAMPING AND HIKING:

Located in southern Sandbridge, False Cape State Park is a mile-wide barrier spit between Back Bay and the Atlantic Ocean offering primitive beachfront camping, where you can camp in near complete isolation right on the beach. With no public vehicle access, False Cape can only be reached by hiking, biking, small boats, or the park's beach transport and tram services, through the neighboring Back Bay National Wildlife Refuge.

With 15 hiking and biking trails, varying in length and ranging from easy to difficult, there are many ways to explore one of the last remaining undeveloped areas on the east coast. We'd recommend navigating the entire 15.3 miles of trails in the park, where you will experience beaches of both an ocean and a bay, dunes, maritime forests, marshes, and wooded swamps, all in one visit.

WILDLIFE VIEWING:

With 9,108 acres, the refuge is made up of barrier islands, dunes, beach woodland, freshwater marshes, maritime forests, ponds and ocean beaches, and is situated on a thin strip of coastline between the Atlantic and Back Bay. More than 300 species call the park home, offering some of the best bird-watching opportunities on the East Coast.

FAT TIRE BIKING:

If you think navigating a bike down our wide, sandy beaches sounds like an impossible feat, you have to try it out on a fat tire bike, which can be rented from one of the area's equipment outfitters. From the oceanfront to the Chesapeake Bay, there may be no better view than biking along the water's edge and the wide tires of these bikes makes riding on the wet sand as easy as riding on pavement.

oceanfront

With its many hotels, dining and entertainment options, the Oceanfront is where the action is. Live music, street performers on Atlantic Avenue, outdoor cafes, hot dog and snow cone vendors, the popular Rudee Inlet marina area; and our famous three-mile boardwalk, perfect for rollerblading, jogging or cruising down the strip on a fat tire bike. Sunbathers come for the wide, sandy beaches; Surfers come for the waves; and Shoppers come for strolling Atlantic Avenue. And everyone comes for the unforgettable experience of a classic day at the beach.

3 Spots You Can't Miss at the Oceanfront

The Virginia Beach Oceanfront is a hub of cool drinks, good food, and live music, all within a beach cruiser's ride from our fresh, sandy beaches. From unique shops to unbeatable seafood, this place is a must on any Virginia Beach itinerary. Here are a few of our favorite spots to get you started.

ATLANTIC AVENUE

For a mix of eclectic coastal finds and great dining options, it's hard to beat Atlantic Avenue. From classic beach staples like Sunsations, to charming local boutique clothing and gift shops, Atlantic Avenue has a little something for everyone. For a shopper's paradise, check out local shop, True Woman, for great styles and reasonably-priced clothing in reasonable sizes and Bargain Beachwear for a huge selection of all of the beach attire you could want at a great price and finish the day with dinner at one of the endless eateries on the strip. For food and fun, you can't go wrong with Beachside Social, featuring indoor shuffleboard, or the open-air beachside vibes of Ocean 27.

RUDEE INLET

At the south end of the Oceanfront, the Rudee Inlet is the go-to spot for fishing charters, jet skiing, parasailing and waterside dining. Head out on a charter to reel in the big one, feel the wind in your face as you glide across the water on a jet ski, and catch a seagull's-eye-view of the Atlantic Ocean as you fly up in the air parasailing. To complete your seaside adventure in tasty fashion, enjoy seafood done right while overlooking the water at Big Sam's Raw Bar, Rockefeller's, or Rudee's on the Inlet.

VIRGINIA BEACH BOARDWALK

The Virginia Beach Boardwalk, at the Oceanfront, is a 28-foot wide marvel that stretches three miles, and features a separate bike path, ideal for strolling, rollerblading and biking. Entertainment is offered nightly during the summer months and four oceanfront stages at 7th, 17th, and 24th and 31st Streets provide live musical acts. Along the boardwalk, there's a variety of quaint outdoor restaurants and vendors offering bike and surrey rentals. Nautical sculptures adorn many of the side streets which lead to Atlantic Avenue.

Chesapeake bay

For beachgoers looking for kinder, gentler waves, a refuge can be found along the calm waters of the Chesapeake Bay, in the community known affectionately to locals as Chic's Beach. From swimming and building sand castles to dolphin watching and volleyball, all the traditional beach rituals are here in a setting that has a decidedly laid-back vibe. At the end of the day, nothing can beat an evening stroll along the beach as the sun sets over the renowned Chesapeake Bay Bridge Tunnel. Relaxing. Local. Quintessential Virginia Beach.

A Day in the Chesapeake Bay District

10^{a.m.}

Start your day with a Honey Cinnamon Latte and the Morning Hash at American Brew, located just steps away from the new Lesner Bridge and Canoes art sculpture.

11^{a.m.}

Head East down Shore Drive to First Landing State Park for a morning hike through preserved marshland dotted with towering Bald Cypress Trees adorned with Spanish moss. Opt for the Bald Cypress Trail, a 1.5 mile hike through and around the cypress swamps.

After your hike, head across the street to Fort Story Military Base to climb the steps of the historic Cape Henry Lighthouse - the first Federal Construction project approved by the new government following the Revolutionary War. The climb to the top can be a doozy, but the 360° views of the Chesapeake Bay and the Atlantic Ocean are well worth it.

2^{p.m.}

Refuel with a pit stop at Commonwealth Brewing Company, who serves up their mouthwatering craft creations out of an old repurposed firehouse. With ample outdoor patio space, lawn games, and food trucks, this is a great place to spend an afternoon outside.

3:30^{p.m.}

Head back across the Lesner Bridge to Tula Adventure Sports, where you can rent kayaks and stand-up paddleboards for an afternoon spent exploring the creeks and waterways of Broad Bay, including First Landing State Park, which is only a half-mile from where you'll launch.

5:30^{p.m.}

A day of hiking and paddling your way through the Bay area can really build up an appetite. Mermaid Winery, the first urban winery in the state of Virginia, offers over 800 wines from around the world and a menu featuring fresh, local ingredients.

7^{p.m.}

Head down to Pleasure House Road for a walk along the Chesapeake Bay at Chic's Beach. After a busy day, you can't beat relaxing by the water's edge at sunset. While the sun rises over the Atlantic Ocean, the angle of the Chesapeake Bay Beach sets you up perfectly to enjoy the sun setting over the water.

9^{p.m.}

Close the night out by catching a show at HK on the Bay, just a couple of blocks off the water. The small, intimate setting puts you right in the middle of the action for some of the best live music around. Enjoy some local beers on tap and dance the night away to some of our favorite local bands.

pungo

Just a few minutes outside of the windswept dunes of Sandbridge, sits 23,000 acres of farmland known to Virginia Beach locals as Pungo. A drive through this expansive agricultural community delivers a rural serenity and countryside charm that feels worlds away from the bustle of the Oceanfront. Stop along your journey at any one of the area's roadside stands or, for a truly Pungo experience, pick your own bushel of fresh berries, produce, or even a bouquet of wildflowers.

town center

At the heart of Virginia Beach, Town Center is the place to be for a night of high-end shopping, dining, and entertainment. Discover the perfect setting for a fun family day out or a romantic evening with dinner and drinks. Laugh the night away at the Funny Bone Comedy Club and Restaurant, or relish in live entertainment offered by the Sandler Center of the Performing Arts or Zeider's American Dream Theatre. End your day with some much-needed rest and relaxation at one of our conveniently located luxury hotels.

Local's Guide to Town Center

While nationally recognized brands will bring you in, Town Center is also home to many gems that can only be found locally. Do yourself a favor and check them out.

SHOPPING

With shops like Eclectic Design Florist & Gift, a must-visit for lovers of plants, there's no shortage of shopping options at Town Center.

RESTAURANTS

Start your day with a nitro brew coffee or juice and a smoothie bowl at Town Center Cold Pressed, whose locally-sourced menu is as tasty as it is good for you. With other delicious food options like Saffron Indian Bistro, Zushi Japanese Bistro, Taste Unlimited, Quirk, and Keagan's Irish Pub, you'll be eating good for many days to come.

DRINKS

While it may be a nationally-franchised restaurant, the brews pouring out of Gordon Biersch Restaurant Brewery are all created and brewed locally, and definitely worth a sip. While deciding which beer to try may be difficult, drinking them certainly isn't.

Twist Martini & Associates is the place to be if you're looking to end your evening with a couple of cocktails.

DESSERTS

Candy connoisseurs can find some of our favorite local confections at The Royal Chocolate. With their melt-in-your-mouth chocolate made right there in the shop, this place is worth a visit for the aromas alone. For a delicious dessert with a decidedly French twist, Lamia's Crepes offers tasty crepes made in the true French tradition, created on traditional crepe pans right before your eyes. After you finish your crepe, we recommend heading over to Confetti Caffe & Gelato, for a scoop of mouthwatering homemade gelato.

Don't leave Town Center without stopping by one of the newest additions, Macaron Tart. With all natural, made from scratch, French macarons and tarts, this woman-owned local bakery prepares small batches in-house to ensure that the quality is always high, and it shows in every bite.

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Sandler Center for the Performing Arts is a masterpiece of acoustical engineering that brings acts from all over the world, including national recording artists, world-renowned symphonies and orchestras, and theatrical masterpieces.

Featuring a distinctly local experience, Zeiders American Dream Theater is a professional nonprofit theater, with a brand new state-of-the-art theater, that gives local writers, performers, and artists the perfect platform to inspire artistic expression of all varieties and has become an integral part of the local arts community.

For fans of the visual arts, don't miss the nationally-acclaimed Jones Art Gallery, with original paintings from three generations of the Jones Family, featured on the covers of nine New York Times Best Sellers, including works by John Grisham and Ian McEwan, and receiving artwork credits in over 100 million books to date.

Things to Do Away from the Beach

From creatively-crafted food and eclectic shopping, to unexpected spots for a little TLC, Virginia Beach's Inland is the perfect compliment to your beach vacation.

FARMHOUSE BREWERY

Farmhouse Brewing, from the folks at Back Bay Brewing, brings a truly unique beer drinking experience to Virginia Beach. Operating out of a restored 1912 inland farmhouse, the Farmhouse brings locally-sourced brews and ciders to our coastal city. With tasting rooms upstairs and downstairs, food trucks, a farmers market and an acre and a half of fig gardens, blueberries, hops and other ingredients that will be used in their beers, this place has it all.

TOPGOLF

Swing into your day with brunch and a couple rounds of Topgolf. If you've never been to Topgolf, you definitely need to give this game a try. No matter how high your handicap is, Topgolf has a variety of games that are enjoyable for any skill level. We like going early - the rounds are cheaper before noon, the crowds are smaller, and their brunch is killer.

FLOWERING ALMOND SPA

While lounging on the beach can seem like the peak of relaxation, take your R&R up a notch with some pampering at the Flowering Almond Spa, located at The Founders Inn hotel. Treat yourself right and opt for the Flowering Almond Manicure Indulgence, which comes with a relaxing hand massage with anti-aging lotion, nourishing Jojoba oil, and Vitamin E, in addition to the traditional manicure experience.

WASSERHUND BREWING CO.

Refuel with drool-inducing pizza and house-brewed beer at Wasserhund Brewing Company, located within The Shops at Hilltop. We like the smooth, juicy punch of their staple, Doggy Paddle IPA, paired with The Wasserhund—a hand-tossed pizza topped with bratwurst, sauerkraut, and their seasonal beer mustard, made to order in their brick oven.

THE SHOPS AT HILLTOP

Spend an afternoon perusing the Hilltop area, just a few minutes drive from the Virginia Beach Oceanfront. With hundreds of specialty shops, Hilltop is a must-shop. With a selection of over 120 shops, boutiques, and restaurants, The Shops At Hilltop has no shortage of unique, local treasures to take home with you.

MOUNT TRASHMORE PARK

Take to the skies with some kite-flying at Mount Trashmore Park, a renowned park that encompasses 165 acres and is comprised of two man-made mountains, two lakes, two playgrounds, a skatepark and vert ramp, and multi-use paths. The main mountain, Mount Trashmore, now 60 feet in height and 800 feet long, was created by compacting layers of solid waste and clean soil.

AUNTIE'S TIKI BAR & RESTAURANT

While you may have opted to spend some time away from the beaches, that doesn't mean you have to fully avoid our coastal vibes. Themed like the traditional tiki bars of the 50s and 60s, Auntie's mouthwatering, house-crafted classic tiki drinks, and Filipino and Hawaiian-inspired menu, will help you end your Inland day the island way.

a beach for EveryBody

Virginia Beach is a beach for people of all abilities. Our boardwalk provides accessibility to individuals with varying degrees of mobility to explore the lively strip that runs parallel to the Atlantic Ocean. Ramps are available at each street to take visitors from the boardwalk to the sand and beach wheelchairs are available on a first-come, first-serve basis at 17th and 24th Streets—free of charge.

JT'S GROMMET ISLAND PARK

Grommet Island, the first beach playground in the country designed specifically for children and adults of all physical abilities, is located right on the sand across from the Rudee Loop. Soft play sculptures, accessible play equipment and cushioned play surfaces on the sand make up this one-of-a-kind playground.

JT'S CAMP GROM

A short drive from the Oceanfront, Camp Grom was developed specifically for children and adults with differing physical abilities and wounded veterans and their families, as well as the families of fallen war heroes. The 70-acre beach-themed camp boasts an aquatic center, an outdoor lake with fishing, a gym, picnic shelters, a sports field, and a water spray park, and an abundance of activities like ropes courses, lakeside trails, swimming, wakeboarding putt-putt, archery and more. The Virginia Gentlemen Foundation spent more than a decade fundraising to open up the camp, in honor of a friend with ALS who loved being outside, and we think the wait was well worth it!

pet friendly virginia beach

Your four-legged family members are always welcomed in Virginia Beach and we want them to enjoy a paw-sitively perfect vacation with you! From the ocean to the bay, and all the dog parks and hiking trails in between, whether swimming, hiking, fetching or joining you for a stand-up paddle (SUP) boarding lesson, we love seeing coastal pets make the most of their visit. Before you travel, be sure to familiarize yourself with the seasonal restrictions and as always, be mindful of keeping your fur-baby on a leash and cleaning up after them.

THINGS TO DO WITH YOUR PET

- GO FOR A WALK ON THE BEACH OR BOARDWALK

Outside of the summer season, dogs are welcomed for a walk at any time on the Virginia Beach Boardwalk, and encouraged to get a little sandy off-leash on any of our beaches.

- HEAD TO A BREWERY

When you're in need of a pint or two, our breweries are a great place to take the dogs and kick back for a day.

- SPEND A DAY AT THE PARK

From state parks to dog parks, there are plenty of spots to let Fido run off some of that puppy energy.

- FETCH A BITE TO EAT

You can also grab a bite at various pet-friendly patios and doggie decks around the city.

QUICK TIP:

Pets are welcome to vacation in Virginia Beach all year long. Before Memorial Day and after Labor Day weekend, dogs are invited to enjoy the public beaches and boardwalk area anytime. outdoor adventure

Coastal waters, beautiful parks and great fishing make Virginia Beach the ideal vacation for any outdoor lover. Home to one of the last great salt marsh habitats on the East Coast with hundreds of miles of inland waters, thousands of acres of parks and countless trails, and the largest estuary in the US in the Chesapeake Bay, this is much more than a seashore vacation. Whether you're on one of our beaches or deep within the canopied forest of our state parks, there's an open invitation to paddle, bike, hike, surf and swim your way to your best vacation yet.

coastal waters

With miles of beautiful coastline and meandering waterways, Virginia Beach is home to an aquatic playground of fun and adventure. Whether you float above the waves on a parasailing excursion, drop in on a surfing session, or ride the currents with a variety of boating activities, getting on the water is never a problem. So paddle, sail, cruise, swim, or walk out to our beautiful waters and start living the life, aquatic-style.

SURFING

Considered by many to be the birthplace of East Coast surfing, the spirit of surfing runs deep in Virginia Beach. Whether you're a novice, a "grommet" or a seasoned pro, catching one of our swells is a must.

explore our parks

Whether you're into invigorating hikes, adventurous trails or scenic routes, Va Beach's state parks, wildlife refuges and miles of protected beaches are sure to have you craving the great outdoors. At First Landing State Park, you can hike through seven distinct ecosystems. In fact, this registered Natural Landmark was the site of the settlers' first landing in 1607 and has since become Virginia's most visited state park.

Walk along 1.25 miles of beachfront and stop to take in the beauty of dunes, tidal marsh and the maritime forest; or follow 19 miles of interpretive hiking, running and biking trails through protected habitats, including one of the most endangered habitat types in the world, the maritime forest community. Along each trail within the 2,888-acre park, you'll encounter a different scene, from freshwater ponds and Spanish moss to stunning views of the Chesapeake Bay.

Farther south in Sandbridge Beach, the Back Bay National Wildlife Refuge provides incredible scenic hikes along several trails through dunes, woodland, marshes and ocean beaches. Given its remote location, the park has become a haven for loggerhead sea turtles, peregrine falcons and bald eagles, all of which you'll have the opportunity to encounter as you explore the 9,108-acre refuge—a local favorite! Feeling extra adventurous? Hike through the refuge to reach False Cape State Park, accessible only by foot or by boat. Featuring six miles of pristine beaches, False Cape is a wildlife watcher's delight and a destination for more than 300 species of birds, including a snow geese population of 10,000.

golfing

Whether you're looking to drive, chip, putt or ride around in the golf cart holding the cooler, Virginia Beach has what you need to make sure your game stays on par. With more than 198 holes of golf from which to choose, Virginia Beach has something for every handicap, including courses and holes designed by some of the legends of the game. Here is where to find some of the best golfing in Virginia Beach.

GOLF COURSES

The City of Virginia Beach offers five public golf courses, all of which are leased and privately operated and managed, including Red Wing Lake, Bow Creek, Kempsville Greens, Stumpy Lake, and Virginia Beach National. Virginia Beach National, designed by golf greats Pete Dye and Curtis Strange, is a former Tournament Players Club (TPC) course that is now available for anyone to play. Another premier venue, The Signature at West Neck, is an Arnold Palmer Signature design and offers a challenging and beautiful championship course, perfect for a day chasing the little white ball.

TOPGOLF

For those who spend more time in the hazards than on the green, swing into your day with brunch and a couple rounds of Topgolf. If you've never been to a Topgolf, you definitely need to give this game a try. No matter how high your handicap is, Topgolf has a variety of games that are enjoyable for any skill level. We like going early. The rounds are cheaper before noon, the crowds are smaller, and their brunch is killer. The chicken and waffle sliders and a couple of classic mimosas are enough to power us through a round or two. While you are technically outside, Topgolf is completely covered and open for business rain or shine, making it the perfect option when your usual round of 18 gets rain-checked.

MINI GOLF

If putting around is more your speed, look no further than the Oceanfront District, which has many miniature golf options that everyone in your group will enjoy. Whether you prefer to play golf among the waterfalls and palm trees of Shipwreck Golf and Pirates Paradise Mini Golf, on a safari at Jungle Golf Virginia Beach, or even test your luck in one of our blacklight indoor mini golf options, we have you covered.

Four HIKING TRAILS to explore

Whether you're into invigorating hikes, adventurous trails or breathtakingly scenic routes, our state parks, wildlife refuges and miles of beaches are all ready to be explored.

BALD CYPRESS TRAIL

For a scenic hike through the enchanting cypress swamps, Bald Cypress Trail offers a 1.6-mile loop, including several boardwalks and platforms overlooking the low wetlands. This trail features an abundance of wildflowers throughout, and is ideal for all experience levels. Dogs are also able to use this trail while on a leash. The trailhead is located at the park's trail center, accessed through the south entrance off of Shore Drive, which is the main hub for accessing the nine interpretive trails running through First Landing's seven distinct ecosystems.

CAPE HENRY TRAIL

This six-mile trail is the longest within First Landing State Park, stretching from the park's northern border to southernmost entrance off of Atlantic Avenue. Accessible to both hikers and bicyclists, and running parallel to Shore Drive, the Cape Henry Trail passes through an old-style beach neighborhood where salt boxes sit comfortably next to contemporary renovations. The flat trail, shaded in places by pine and live oak trees, is perfect for avid bird watchers; you'll see osprey and egrets, and maybe even an elusive eagle. The trail heads through the park, past the beaches of the secluded narrows, and connects at the northern tip of the Virginia Beach Boardwalk.

PLEASURE HOUSE POINT NATURAL AREA

With over 118 acres of pristine maritime forests, marshland and beaches, the Pleasure House Point Natural Area includes three sandy trails that are a must for visiting hikers. Each soft trail can be easily completed by hikers of all skill levels in an hour or two. The natural area's location between the Lynnhaven River and the mouth of the Chesapeake Bay, make this natural sanctuary a beautiful place to spend the day.

STUMPY LAKE LOOP

Totalling 1.5 miles in length, the Stumpy Lake Loop overlooks the beautiful Stumpy Lake, and is perfect for hiking, walking, trail running and nature trips. The Stumpy Lake Natural Area is located along the south central City boundary with Chesapeake, and features a 278-acre lake with a raised overlook, 174-acre golf course, with more than 970 acres of undeveloped, forested land surrounding the lake and 1.65 miles of soft shared-use trails.

CYCLE YOUR WAY Through THE CITY

Virginia Beach has over 200 miles of bikeways and trails, not counting trails in our 230+ parks and natural areas. Here's our advice for the best location for your favored bike.

SURREY BIKE

Location: Oceanfront

Tip: With a dedicated bike lane alongside the boardwalk, surreys are meant to be shared with your closest family and friends.

ROAD BIKE

Location: Inland/Surrounding Areas

Tip: Don't try this alone: friendly Saturday group rides are a must with rides for all paces. Take some cash for a post-ride coffee shop party.

BEACH CRUISER

Location: Inland/Red Mill

Tip: Using sidewalks, dine around daytime by bike through Red Mill Commons or head to New Realm Brewery.

FAT TIRE BIKE

Location: False Cape State Park

Tip: Low tide is the best for riding on compact sand.

MOUNTAIN OR CYCLOCROSS BIKE

Location: First Landing State Park

Tip: Be on alert for soft sand, occasional tree roots and friendly hikers and runners on Cape Henry Trail. Share the trail!

TIME TRIAL BIKE

Location: Pungo

Tip: A 50-mile, flat bike loop on country roads is perfect for interval training. Test your small gear climbing skills on Pungo Ferry Bridge... if you dare.

Top 10 PLACES FOR SUNRISE & SUNSET PHOTOS

To see the sun rise over the Atlantic Ocean and set over the Chesapeake Bay, in the same day, is an experience that is uniquely Virginia Beach. Whether you are using a camera or camera phone, you're guaranteed to get the perfect sunrise and sunset shots at these places.

SUNRISE

A sunrise in Virginia Beach is a sight you won't soon forget. With the world still sound asleep, the show is about to begin—and you have a front-row seat.

Sandbridge Beaches

Watch through the dancing sea oats on the dunes of Sandbridge, as the waking sun glistens on the morning surf. Whether you take in the daybreak on the Little Island Pier, on the beaches of the Back Bay Wildlife Refuge, or relaxing on the deck of your vacation rental, you really can't go wrong here.

King Neptune Statue

For the quintessential Virginia Beach shot, we love getting King Neptune himself in the foreground with the colors of the sunrise peeking out from behind him.

Virginia Beach Fishing Pier

Like King Neptune, the Virginia Beach Fishing Pier is a local icon that makes for a great sunrise photo. Whether you actually take your shot on the pier, or you get the silhouette of the pier from further down the beach, this always makes for a great picture.

Oceanfront Hotels

Although you can always get a great shot by standing on the beach or boardwalk, the perspective that comes with our oceanfront hotel balconies will bring it to the next level - literally.

Croatan Beach

What sets Croatan Beach apart from the others is that this beach is a favorite of our local surfers, who often head out before the sun comes up waves.

SUNSET

After a busy day, you can't beat a walk along the water's edge at sunset. While the sun rises over the Atlantic Ocean, the angle of the Chesapeake Bay Beach sets you up perfectly to enjoy the sun setting over the water.

Chic's Beach

Whether taking an evening stroll or setting up a beach chair to take in the show, this is the easiest spot to capture that unforgettable sunset shot in Virginia Beach.

Chesapeake Bay

Get the perfect shot of the last light of day by dropping a paddle board or kayak into the water and floating right up to it. Be sure to capture the Chesapeake Bay Bridge Tunnel in the background for a classic Va Beach touch.

Rudee Inlet

With the bridge in the foreground and the boats of the marina against the sunset in the background, this is one of our favorite marina sunset shots.

Broad Bay

At favorite local eateries like the Back Deck, Bubba's, and Chick's Oyster Bar, you can enjoy a sunset with a side of fresh seafood and delicious drinks while sitting out over the water in the Chesapeake Bay District.

The Narrows

The tapering waterway bordering First Landing State Park, known to Virginia Beach locals as The Narrows, is one of our favorite hidden spots to snap a beautiful shot over the water.

Savor Our Coastal Flavors

With its location on the southern tip of the Chesapeake Bay, our coastal community makes for a seafood-centric culinary culture, which boasts a wide array of unique restaurants and delectable fare. With the famously rich waters of the Bay, hundreds of inlets snaking through the city and miles of farmland, Virginia Beach is the place for seafood and locally harvested ingredients, and that's only the beginning. From a growing brewery network and our legendary Lynnhaven oysters, to local chefs who are constantly pushing what it means to be farm-to-table and sea-to-table, our culinary scene is truly something to be savored.

WE LOVE OUR SEAFOOD

It's during the fall and winter months that this seafood craze gets even fresher. December and January are the peak seasons for rockfish (striped bass), striper, black sea bass, flounder, speckled trout and blueline tilefish—all available within 50 miles! That's not surprising though, since the mouth of the Chesapeake Bay is considered to be the largest and most biologically diverse estuary in the U.S., yielding more seafood than any of the country's other 840 estuaries, making us - and all seafood-lovers - incredibly lucky.

5 ICONIC Virginia Beach FLAVORS YOU HAVE TO TRY

In Virginia Beach, the salty brackish water is home to an amazing array of sea life; the soil is sandy and perfect for growing many edible treasures; and the beach cocktails flow like the mighty Lynnhaven River. The main hallmarks of our coastal cuisine are fresh, seasonal, and simply prepared ingredients, often sourced from our own rich farmlands. While we're proud of the diversity of our culinary scene, sometimes you just have to play the hits.

1 OYSTERS

Once coveted by the English aristocracy for its size and salinity, the famous Lynnhaven Oyster is a local legend that we can't get enough of, no matter the season. Captain John Smith himself described the bounty of the area saying "oysters lay as thick as stones," with the Bay and rivers containing more sturgeon "than could be devoured by dog or man." There may not be the numbers there were in Smith's day, but the local oyster population is on the rise and we are all the better for it. Hop aboard a Pleasure House Oysters boat tour and taste an oyster plucked straight from the water beneath you, or order them how you like them from one of our area's many restaurants who feature our favorite bivalve.

2 SHE-CRAB SOUP

She-crab soup is a staple of our coastal cuisine here in Virginia Beach. From the East Coast She-Crab Soup Classic to the numerous local restaurants that feature it on their menu, this dish is everywhere—and for good reason. When in the Sandbridge area, grab a cup at Margie & Ray's Seafood, Crab & Raw Bar. A local's staple since 1964, their she-crab soup has been voted the favorite in Tidewater more than once.

3 SOFT SHELL CRAB

Soft shell crabs are blue crabs whose hard exterior shells have molted, and they are found in abundance in the warming waters of the Chesapeake Bay, starting in the spring. While legend has it that they begin molting after the first full moon of May, the local soft shell crab season typically starts in mid-April or early May each year, and lasts through September. Whether you enjoy them lightly fried, beneath a perfectly-poached egg, or atop a spicy bloody Mary (like on the popular Bloody Blue at Bay Local Eatery) there's no shortage of delicious ways to sink your teeth into these mouth-watering delicacies.

4 ORANGE CRUSH

What better way to cool off during the hot summer months than with a refreshing fruity spirit? Virginia Beach is known for Orange Crushes, and if you've visited us before, there is a good chance you've already tried one. With its freshly-squeezed OJ, triple sec, and Sprite there is no turning back. They're like fries, you can't have just one. This perfect summer drink first originated at Waterman's Surfside Grille, but can be found on menus all throughout the city at places like Chix Seaside Grille and Bar and The Shack on 8th.

5 FRESH PUNGO BERRIES

Just a few minutes outside of the windswept dunes of Sandbridge, sits 23,000 acres of farmland known to Virginia Beach locals as Pungo. A drive through this expansive agricultural community delivers a rural serenity and countryside charm that feels worlds away from the bustle of the Oceanfront. Stop along your journey at any one of the area's roadside stands or, for a truly Pungo experience, pick your own bushel of fresh and local favorites like strawberries, blueberries, and blackberries.

PICK-YOUR-OWN:

Our Pungo community is a dynamic part of our beach culture. With 16 pick-your-own farms located just a short drive from the beach, you can pick your own bushel of fresh berries, produce, or even a bouquet of wildflowers and be back at the beach by dinner.

Virginia Beach Beer Trail

The ever-expanding craft beer scene in Virginia Beach is overflowing with unique flavors. From juicy IPAs bursting with hops to complex barrel-aged sours, there's a beer, and a brewery, for everyone. The Virginia Beach Beer Trail is about celebrating all of our great local breweries and brews, from the Chesapeake Bay District to the Oceanfront, one pint at a time. Cheers!

4 SEASONS OF Fun

With “Beach” in our name, long, hot days spent soaking in the sun and surf between Memorial Day and Labor Day might be the first thing that comes to mind when planning a trip to our seaside city. While our pristine beaches and abundant natural waterways make us an ideal summer destination, the fun doesn’t stop when the days grow shorter. In fact, it is in the cooler months that much of our coastal culture truly comes alive. With year-round mild temperatures, ample winter wildlife adventures, seasonal coastal cuisine, and a decidedly more “local” vibe, you can live the life in Virginia Beach year-round.

Fun. Beachy.

SUMMER

Sunscreen, sunglasses, and sunbathing—are you picking up on a trend here? The sun is out and that means summer vacation season is in full swing. Grab a friend or the whole family and claim your spot on the sand. There's plenty of beach to choose from and even more chances to live the life with us in Virginia Beach all summer long. Make this the summer of you! See you on the sand.

Crisp. Colorful.

FALL

Fall is our favorite season to get outside and explore. From our beautiful parks, trails and waterways to the delicious, fresh seafood and unmatched fall festivals, it is the season to unleash your inner child and dive into the leaf pile head first. The craft beer, fresh produce from local farms and ridiculously beautiful ocean sunrises don't hurt either.

Coastal. Cool.

WINTER

'Tis the season to trade your snow shovel for a Virginia Beach vacation and fill your days with slurping down fresh oysters, plucked straight from the water beneath you, riding horses on the beach, and paying a visit to our largest annual guests - humpback whales! When you have a whole coastal city at your fingertips, a winter getaway to the beach is the gift that keeps on giving.

Lively. Bountiful.

SPRING

As the days grow longer, that can only mean one thing: spring is in the ocean air. Vacation season is in full bloom in Virginia Beach, bringing with it plenty of new adventures, like fresh, local produce to be picked, miles of pristine coastline to be explored, and dolphin-filled waterways to kayak. We hope you packed your appetite for new adventures because spring has sprung.

ACCOMMODATIONS AND CAMPGROUNDS

The City of Virginia Beach and the Virginia Beach Hotel Association want your stay to be happy and carefree. Some properties may not be open year round, so it is best to make a reservation prior to arriving. When you make a reservation at one of our hotels or motels, a deposit secured by check, credit card or money order may be required. Reservations are confirmed upon receipt of your deposit by the hotel. Familiarize yourself with and inquire about cancellation policies, early checkouts, refunds, number of people in the room and any fees associated with lodging stay, as policies vary from one hotel to another.

CHANGES IN RESERVATIONS

Accommodations may require up to seven (7) days written notice of cancellation prior to arrival date.

PLEASE BE AWARE that some lodging establishments do charge an administrative fee for cancellation of accommodations.

EARLY CHECKOUTS AND REFUNDS

Accommodations may require up to, but no more than, 72 hours notice when a guest requests a change in a previously set departure date. Weekly, monthly and group rates are subject to the confirmation or contract.

MINIMUM STAYS

Some hotels require two-, three- or four-day minimum stays for confirmed reservations, including weekends and holidays. When a refund is due, standard bookkeeping practices are observed. Refund checks are usually mailed from the hotel's business office. Refunds are not usually made from the registration desk.

CHANGES IN RATES

This publication was assembled in the fall of 2019. Due to a number of factors, it is impossible to ensure that the published rates for a hotel will not change. The publisher has no control over this situation. Holiday and weekend rates may be slightly higher. Please inquire about rates when making reservations.

For further information and assistance with accommodations, contact the Virginia Beach Visitor Information Center at 1-800-VA BEACH (1-800-822-3224) or (757) 385-SURF(7873). The City of Virginia Beach has relied on information supplied by our tourist-related businesses and cannot guarantee accuracy.
